

Q1. Fill in the blanks with can, cannot, may, or may not

- a. I love running. I can run 5 miles in 30 minutes.
- b. Susan called to say that she cannot attend the lecture. She is busy today.
- c. I can speak Japanese. I learnt it when I was in Osaka.
- d. We may not meet tomorrow. I have an important meeting.
- e. Illiterate people cannot read or write.
- f. Usain Bolt can run extremely fast.
- g. Where are my keys? I cannot find them anywhere.
- h. I can swim very well. I learnt swimming as a child.
- i. The music here is very loud. I cannot hear you.
- j. Sue may not be on time. She is always late.
- k. Sir, please may I have some more porridge?
- l. The storm has passed. It may not rain any more.
- m. Susan is not a great cook. You may not like her dishes.
- n. Shashi is not feeling well. She may not come tonight.
- o. Rohit has accepted my invitation. You may see him at my party.

Q2. Underline the correct option

- a. You may borrow my pen if you need.
- b. We must obey traffic rules.
- c. Children can play outside after school.
- d. You must not use your phone during the exam.
- e. You shouldn't tease the dog.
- f. You should help the elderly.
- g. Children should be taught the difference between right and wrong.
- h. He may be late because of traffic.
- i. You must respect your elders.
- j. We may go shopping later if we have time.
- k. She should listen carefully in class.
- l. She can solve this puzzle easily.
- m. You must not enter without a ticket.
- n. They must help their parents at home.
- o. You can ride a bicycle without training wheels now.
- p. She should be kind to animals.
- q. We must wear uniforms at school.
- r. She may join us for dinner if she finishes work early.
- s. You must not park your car here.
- t. We should take care of our environment.
- u. They can speak French fluently.
- v. We may visit the museum tomorrow if it's open.
- w. You shouldn't eat too much sugar.
- x. He must pay attention in class.
- y. You can borrow books from the library.
- z. Students must submit their assignments on time.