

● SH. S.N. Sidheshwar sr. sec. Public School

● Class VI – Social Science

● August Assignment 1

● Fill in the blanks

1. _____ activities are things people do to earn money.
2. Non economic activities create a _____ environment.
3. _____ is someone who help other without getting paid.

● Match column A with column B

4.

Column A (Activities)

Column B (Type)

- | | |
|---|--------------------------|
| i. Shopkeeper selling fruits | A. Value addition |
| ii. Making a gift box more attractive with decoration | B. Economic Activity |
| iii. Helping an old person cross the road | C. Non-Economic activity |
| iv. Praying at home | D. Volunteer activity |

● Answer the following in complete sentence

5. Find out the names of activities in which majority of Indians are engaged.

● Answer the following in 20-30 words

6. How do festivals show community participation?
7. How is community participation seen in the Panchayati Raj system?
8. What is ILO? What is its purpose?
9. Some activities may start as non economic but can lead to earning money explain with example.
10. Why maximum Indians are involved in agriculture and service sector activities?

Case study

Vikas on a small grocery store in a busy town. Each day Vikas open his shop, arranges shelves and help customers find what day need. He sells a variety of items from fruits and vegetables to snacks and drinks. Vikas' job is important because he provides a place where people can buy everyday necessities. He also managers the money ordered new stock and share that he is customers are happy.

Q1. Why are occupations like shop keeping considered economic activities?

Q2. What role do services like grocery shops play in supporting daily life in society?

Q3. Name any two economic activities.

Q4. How economic activities are beneficial?